RAILROD KEEPING THE OFFICES OF JUNE 14.—On Wednesday Morning the negroes, who were taken from the prisoner Henry Grover, for some time a dispute between him and a sailor aboard the railroader then struck Mr. Miller, giving a black eye and other injuries. A witness was granted for his apprehension and in the hands of Mr. Miller, who went on with Mr. Christie, Magistrate. The prisoner refused to give himself up, and several of the crew said they would support him, then returned for assistance, and some of the men could not be secured, and Mr. Miller accompanied them to Mr. Hodgson's office. The prisoner, when he saw the crowd, immediately ran up the rigging. Dunn, C. J., various stratagems along with Mr. Miller, and a large number of sailors, a large number of people flocked down to the ship, where Horton and Christie attended the prisoner, and he was taken to the jail.

A CLEVER ARREST.

In order to induce the prisoner to come on, Dunn threatened to cut away the mast:

denied him that it was only a ruse and a reality that the mast was to be cut down, actually the prisoner came down and was unharmed and taken to jail, where he was kept until Thursday, at 10 a. m.—Own and Paper.

BIL CHASES NAJPER AND THE GRAND-EE CONSTATINE.—In St. Petersburg there is a story in circulation of a reply that Bil Chase Najper gave the Grand Duke Constantine. The latter after letting Bil Chase Najper know that he was in the neighborhood of Constantinople, and the sufficiency of Constantinople, asked him if he wanted to know the meaning of the word "Constantine" in the sense of manner, "Well Admiral, and why didn't you come in?" To which Bil Chase Najper replied by saying "Pray, why did not your imperial highness come out?"—Berlin Correspondence of the Times.

FAIR ON THE LAKE.—The sun retired on Thursday in a bed of thick, angry-looking clouds, and the whole sky exhibited a threatening aspect. The wind, however, still blowing heavily during the evening, and in the course of the night a violent gale from the West set in, which continued all day, and was accompanied by a heavy rain. It is feared of only one casualty, that of the Corral, which, being driven ashore somewhere between this city and Beth; but we fear another vessel may be lost on the lakes will be heard of in a day or two.

We are informed that the yacht Reverie came down the lake in the midst of the gale, and was wrecked on the shore.

Nothing looks so improbable to those who have in vain tried all the wonderful cures of the day, as that a common weed growing in the pasture and along old roads should cure every humor in the system. It is a fixed fact. If you have a humor that has to start. There are no ifs nor ands, nor laws, about it, suiting some cases not yours. I peddled over a thousand of it in the vicinity of Boston. I see the effects of it in every case. It has done some of the greatest cures ever done in Massachusetts. I want it to children.

old, people of sixty. I have seen many, worn-looking children, whose faces are soft and flabby, restored to a perfect health by one bottle.

To those who are subject to a sick ache one bottle will always cure it. It gives great relief in catarrhs and diarrhoeas, who have taken it have been twenty years, and have been regulated by it. The body is sound it works quite easy where there is any derangement of the functions of nature it will cause very kind feelings, but you must not be alarmed, it is not a violent medicine.

There is never a bad result from it; on the contrary, when that feeling is gone, you feel yourself like a new person. I have seen some of the most extravagant eaters of meat that ever man listened to.

The Yeoman, it appears, went down a few minutes, when the captain and officers and greater part of the crew, in all nine persons, were thrown overboard, and three only were saved. The Yeoman, it is reported, was on board the Helen Heider.
